1 May 2018

Data Protection Officers

On Thursday 26 April, Member Councils were advised of the Government's amendment to the Bill removing the need for parish councils to have a data protection officer. This is dependent on the amendment being accepted by Parliament.

As and when more information becomes available, I will inform Member Councils

Data Protection Fees

Member Councils are being sent a briefing from the national NALC on the fees payable from 25 May 2018.

New Secretary of State

As you will probably have seen, the MHCLG has a new Secretary of State, James Brokenshire. Interestingly, his father was a local authority chief executive.

There is no indication whether this means a change of emphasis in any areas at MHCLG for current issues such as the NPPF review and North of Tyne Devolution.
