General Data Protection Regulations

There have been a number of comments in the professional media about these regulations which come into effect in May 2018.

We are aware that the national NALC are in discussion with the Govt. regarding the potential effect on local councils.

We are attending a briefing on this issue at the national NALC in late November when the position should be clarified.

ets of Community Value and the relationship to planning

Local Government Lawyer has an interesting article on the appeals against listing a community asset to which planning issues can be considered.
